

Synthetic newspaper report on the library board

The Samarpur Gazette reported that the new library board held its first meeting on 12 April 1927 and resolved to open three branch reading rooms in the mill districts. The report is shown online only.